STILL ADVISING THEM.

The English Journalist Calls Attention to the Revolution.

Landor Jan 7 .- Mr. Henry Norman special commissioner, caldes his paper from Washington as follows:

"The tide of opinion here regarding England seems to me to be distinctly turning, owing. I believe, both to my utterances and to England's anxious foreign crisis. Many atterances of the American press prove the truth of my assertions that all the best American Proposition to Hold Biennial Sessions Is opinion is desirous of a friendly and d gnified . wiem nr. I had a conversation on this subject with Sonator Gray of Delaware, who said:

"'I don't think the president made or intended to make a threat toward the British government in his message, but he did mean to express in the strongest way possible his own feeling and what I believe to be the feeling of all the people of this country regarding the island in force, it is possible that supposed British refusal of arbitration the North Atlantic squadron may be in the Venezuelan matter, except with ordered to favana in order to be in reference to an arbitrary line made up

> "The present moment is a golden one to secure American good will. Can England afford to lose it? Lord Salisbury takes no step and sees no way Then let him reflect that his attitude is identical with that fatal one which lost Great Britain her American colonies more than a century ago. The American people are merely hitening for some word from him. The cost of it would be slight and the gain colossal.

Of course the proposal to arbitrate within the Schomburghk line is not received here with favor, but it is just possible that the recent utterances of the administration of Brstish Guiana have more to do with this than anything else. The British legislature is now in vacation and the local government officials are more than usually retreen upon the question.

A Matter for Doubt

NEW York Jan 7 -A local paper has received the following correspond ence from Georgetown British Guiana, President Chavaland's special message on the boundary dispute apecial missings on the boundary maprice is the topic of conversation in every oncle and the situation is considered critical. (heneral confidence is expressed in the state-main-ship of Lord ballsbury but on the other hand there are indications that the question of right of possession of the contexted terminal errors to the Schomburgk line, is ntory even to the Schomburgk line, is mutter for doubt Of course the proa matter for doubt. Of course the proposal to arbitrate within the Schomburghk him is not received here with favor but it is just possible that the recent atterances of the administration of Breach Guinn; have more to do with this than unthing else. The British local government officials are more than would restorn and the usually retirent upon the question

HE SLEW CHIEF TECUMSEH Cichard M. Johnson of Kentucky the flere of the Fight

While nearly every one has heard of the famous Indian leader Legum seh there are many who are not aware of the fact that his death was due to the biavery of a min who afterward became they ice proudent of the United States Richard M. Johnson was a mativo of the Blue Gress State and the fact may account for his fundness for a right. He was born in 1781 while Washington was still alive and when the American states had scarcely passed out of their swaddling clothes into the dress of full fledged and independent sovereignities The white man ruled only in the east, and out on the vast mannes of the west reamed the Indims, and the settlers on the out shirts of civilization never knew at what moment they raight be at tacked and destroyed

Such continued to be the state of affants for some years, and when Johnson was in congress in 1813, and the English and Indians had combined to attack the new repub he Johns in wout home to Kentucky and raisud a battalien of three com pamies, and after they had been consolid ited into a regiment was incide the colonel and served for ten months. He returned for a short spice to his congressional duties but at the command of the secretary of war soon i used a regiment of a thousand voluntous and wont to at to k the enemy in the west joining his force to that of General Wallaum
